

Updated News March 25, 2020

Trucking Remains Exempt as Feds Impose Stricter Measures on Canadians Returning from Travel

The Government of Canada today announced that Canadians returning from travel abroad will be required to follow mandatory self-isolation protocols as of midnight tonight, but CTA is reminding the trucking industry truck drivers remain exempt from these requirements.

Click here for more information.

Restaurant Group, McDonalds Express to CTA Commitment to Serve Truckers

CTA is highlighting the actions of Restaurants Canada (RC) and their members for helping to devise truck driver-friendly solutions at locations offering only drive thru service only in response to the COVID-19 crisis.

Click here for more information.

CTA, Insurers Confirm Independent Owner-Operator Plans Covered for US Medical Coverage

The Canadian Trucking Alliance stood up for independent trucking operators by directly engaging the insurance industry to ensure the owner-operator community is covered for medical benefits while operating in the U.S.

Click here for more information.

COVID-19 Daily Bulletins: March 25

Ontario's Action Plan: Responding to COVID-19 - Economic and Fiscal Update; Manitoba MPI updates.

Click here for more information.

FOR THE LATEST UPDATES VISIT WWW.CANTRUCK.CA/COVID-19/